

Marsha provided us with a professional and friendly service at the very last minute. She accomodated all of our requests and on the day her professionalism and efficiency really added the special touch which helped our day run smoothly

Her food was very well recieved and we would be happy to use her services again.

